Alex Bowman to Drive Valvoline American Heroes Paint Scheme in Independence Day Weekend Race at Daytona

Unique scheme part of larger Valvoline initiative honoring America's first responders, military

LEXINGTON, Ky., June 13, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- Valvoline Inc. (NYSE: VVV), a leading worldwide supplier of premium branded lubricants and automotive services, has unveiled its American Heroes- inspired paint scheme for Alex Bowman, who drives for 12-time NASCAR Cup Series champions Hendrick Motorsports. Bowman will race the special No. 88 Chevrolet Camaro ZL1 design July 6 at the 400-mile event at Daytona International Speedway in Florida.

The red, white and blue paint scheme is a culmination of Valvoline's current American Heroes initiative honoring our nation's military members and first responders. The program highlights the brand's 150 years of being American-owned and -operated and its dedication to military support dating as far back as World War II.

"Alex's paint scheme represents Valvoline's commitment to those who defend our country and serve its citizens," said Tim Ferrell, Vice President of Brand Equity and Consumer Marketing. "We're thrilled to further our support of military members and first responders by introducing American Heroes this year, and we thank Alex and our partners at Hendrick Motorsports for their support of this initiative."

As part of the overall campaign, Valvoline business segments are supporting the American Red Cross, Building Homes for Heroes and the Intrepid Fallen Heroes Fund.

Valvoline is a sponsor of Hendrick Motorsports and its No. 88 Chevrolet Camaro ZL1 team through 2022.
