Valvoline Announces Pricing and Upsizing of Senior Notes Offering

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 8, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- Valvoline Inc. ("Valvoline") (NYSE: VVV) announced today that it has priced its previously announced offering of 4.375% Senior Notes due 2025 (the "Notes"), as an add-on to its existing issue in such series of $400 million (the "Existing 2025 Notes") and upsized the offering from $300 million to $400 million aggregate principal amount. The Notes priced at 99.500% of their principal amount plus accrued and unpaid interest from February 15, 2020. The Notes will have the same terms as the Existing 2025 Notes, except that the Existing 2025 Notes are registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), and certain transfer restrictions, registration rights and additional interest provisions that will apply to the Notes do not apply to the Existing 2025 Notes. The Notes will be unsecured unsubordinated obligations of Valvoline. Each of Valvoline's subsidiaries that guarantees Valvoline's obligations under its existing senior secured credit facilities will guarantee the Notes on an unsubordinated unsecured basis. Valvoline intends to use all of the net proceeds from this offering to repay borrowings under its senior secured revolving credit facility. The offering is expected to close on May 22, 2020, subject to customary closing conditions.

The Notes will be offered to qualified institutional buyers pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act and to non-U.S. persons outside the United States pursuant to Regulation S under the Securities Act. The Notes have not been registered under the Securities Act and may not be offered or sold in the United States without registration or an applicable exemption from the registration requirements.

This news release shall not constitute an offer to sell, or a solicitation of an offer to buy the Notes. No offer, solicitation, or sale will be made in any jurisdiction in which such an offer, solicitation, or sale would be unlawful.
