Valvoline Inc. Releases Its Fiscal Year 2023 Corporate Social Responsibility Report

LEXINGTON, Ky., June 26, 2024 /PRNewswire/ -- Valvoline Inc. (NYSE: VVV), the quick, easy, trusted leader in preventive automotive maintenance, today announced the release of its Corporate Social Responsibility report, highlighting its fiscal year 2023 people, safety, environmental, and innovation initiatives.

"This report marks an important milestone for our company as it is our first CSR report issued as a pure-play, high-growth retailer following the sale of Valvoline Global Products," said Valvoline Inc. President and CEO Lori Flees. "We look forward to further advancing our corporate, social and environmental efforts as we continue to grow as a retail-focused company."

Highlights of the report include:

- Valvoline Inc. continues to diversify its talent pools and pipelines, with women representing 48% of management (as defined as director level and above*). In 2023, four out of seven (57%) executive officers at Valvoline were women, including its President and CEO, Chief Financial Officer, Chief Legal Officer, and Chief Accounting Officer.
- The company raised over $1.2 million across the United States and Canada for the Children's Miracle Network Hospitals, once again placing the company in Children's Miracle Network's Million Miracle Club.
- Company-owned service centers recycled nearly every product used in core service offerings, allowing the company to divert nearly 500 tons of standard trash from landfills in 2023 and to increase recycled waste oil by 39% over 2022.
